The David C. Koch Regional Cancer Therapy Center, University of Pittsburgh School of Medicine Center for Continuing Education in the Health Sciences and UPMC Cancer Centers invite you to attend a Robotic Pancreas Surgery Course for the following topic of discussion:

“Robotic Pancreas Surgery”

As a result of participation in this activity participants will recognize the basics of setting up the OR suite, equipment and steps in performing robotic assisted pancreatic resections. Course is limited to 10 participants

Course Directors:
Herbert J. Zeh, III, MD, FACS
Chief, Division of GI Surgical Oncology
Co-Director UPMC Pancreatic Cancer Center
Associate Professor of Surgery

Amer H. Zureikat, MD, FACS
Co-Director UPMC Pancreatic Cancer Center
Assistant Professor of Surgery,
Division of Surgical Oncology

June 14, 2013  6:00 PM-8:00 PM
Wyndham Hotel, University Center
Contact Garry at 412-682-6251
Or email gmintz@wyndham.com
Pittsburgh, PA  15213

June 15, 2013  7:00 am  – 5:00 PM
Observation of Robotic Pancreaticoduodenectomy
UPMC Presbyterian – OR 25
Pittsburgh, PA  15213

Register online:  https://ccehs.upmc.com/liveFormalCourses.jsf

Additional information: Maureen Hewko, MBA, Program Manager, hewkom@upmc.edu

Course is approved for AMA PRA Category 1 Credit™

The University of Pittsburgh is an affirmative action, equal opportunity institution.