Thursday, November 15, 2018

8 a.m. to Noon, and 1 to 5 p.m.

Morning and afternoon sessions are separate, but will present the same information at both sessions.

UPMC Altoona Hospital, Magee Lecture Hall
620 Howard Avenue, Altoona, PA 16601

This event is co-sponsored by Family Hospice and Palliative Care, the UPMC Palliative and Supportive Institute, and UPMC Altoona.

$20 fee for all attendees

Four CEU credits for physicians, physician assistants, social workers, and nurses

Due to the success of the inaugural symposium in Pittsburgh earlier this year, "No Patient Is Typical" is being taken on the road! Presenters will speak to the expanding scope of treatments, diagnoses, circumstances, and populations that clinicians meet with in the care of patients and families navigating chronic or life-limiting illness. This is an excellent educational opportunity for physicians, PAs, RNs, CRNPs, and MSWs.

AGENDA:

Please note – Morning session attendees will receive a boxed lunch after the last presentation and afternoon session attendees will receive lunch during registration.
